- On [REDACTED] invitations were issued to China, Japan, Korea, India, Burma, Thailand, Viet Minh, Malaya and the Philippines for a meeting at Changchun of the Far East Revolutionary Committee (東方革命委員會), sponsored by international Communism. The invitations, issued from Peiping, set the date of the meeting for 2 April. Its purpose is to discuss the intensification of the struggle for liberation in the countries of Southeast Asia. Malenkov was to represent the Comintern (sic).
- Five delegates from unknown countries were in Peiping and Mukden at the beginning of April 1951, but the meeting had been postponed to 7 April because Malenkov and others had been delayed.
